President's Report

Dear Members and Colleagues

Community Health Nurses' Initiatives Group (CHNIG) continues to be a strong and vibrant organization – an organization celebrating over 30 years of advocacy and leadership for community health nursing in Ontario. This year is extra special, as the World Health Organization (WHO) has designated 2020 as the Year of the Nurse and the Midwife. These designations are critical to continuing to raise awareness of the importance of nurses to the health system and the health of Ontarians. Thanks to the tireless and committed efforts from many volunteers.

This is a time of change within the community health sector: The global COVID-19 pandemic and its impacts to individuals and communities, the revised 2019 Community Health Nursing Standards of Practice, the recent release of the RNAO report on enhancing community care for Ontarians, and the modification of public health practice by the Ontario government. Now more than ever CHNIG must ensure it is positioned to consult with members and be the strong VOICE for community health nursing in Ontario.

I am privileged to have had the honour to work with the CHNIG Board this past year to meet the goals and objectives of the CHNIG. The CHNIG Board represents a cross-section of dedicated, energetic and enthusiastic community health nurses from across Ontario, representing home health, public health, primary care, education, research, management and nursing leadership. Each Director's unique focus and expertise contributes to the strength of our organization. In the past year, CHNIG has revised the strategic plan to align with the four RNAO ENDS. The revised goals and objectives of CHNIG are:

- Engage and maximize involvement with nurses and students in community health nursing, stimulate membership and promote the value of belonging to CHNIG;
- Advance and strengthen the profile of CHNs; build capacity and leadership in CHNs, and articulate the significance of their practice;
- Speak out on emerging issues that impact on CHNs, community health nursing profession, and community health organizations; and
- Influence health, environmental and social policy.

Goal One: Engage and maximize involvement with nurses and students in community health nursing, stimulate membership and promote the value of belonging to CHNIG

[Align with RNAO END: Engage with registered nurses, nurse practitioners, and nursing students to stimulate membership and promote the value of belonging in their organization.]

As an Initiatives Group, CHNIG values the involvement and meeting the needs of its membership. In the past year, CHNIG has organized various activities to promote engagement of all nurse practitioners, registered nurses and students, including:

- An Annual General Meeting (AGM) on April 13, 2019 where a total of 50 members and non-members along with honoured guests, a Member of Provincial Parliament (MPP), and Dr. Doris Grinspun, attended to discuss current issues in community health nursing, such as public health modernization. As well, several Best Practice Spotlight Organization Delegates from China attended the AGM.
- Promoted the value of joining RNAO and this interest group to over 500 registered nurses during 2019 Nursing Week celebrations at two public health units.
- A forum for members from across Ontario to connect by webinar to discuss community nursing issues, facilitated by the Professional Practice Board of Directors (BODs). This occurs 3 times annually. It enables members to participate regardless of geographical location.
- Collaboration with nursing student councils at University of Toronto and York University to host membership drives in February 2020 and March 2020, respectively. Free student memberships were offered to stimulate membership growth.
- CHNIG Student Representative Committee organized a student-focused professional development webinar on March 7, 2020 about various roles and responsibilities of community health nurses, particularly in public health and home health nursing. Promoted and disseminated various educational opportunities and awards using Facebook and CHNIG website.
- Emails and communication via social media are sent to members with regular updates to keep members informed and provide opportunities to ask questions and be involved.

Goal Two: Advance and strengthen the profile of CHNs; build capacity and leadership in CHNs, and articulate the significance of their practice.

[Aligns with RNAO END: RNAO advances the role and image of nurses as members of a vital, knowledge-driven, caring profession, and as significant contributors to health.]

As President, May Tao chaired and participated on the National School-based Network in June 2019 to advocate for full scope of practice in school health nursing across the country. In addition, several delegates from China and Spain shadowed her to learn about the implementation and evaluation of RNAO Best Practice Guidelines (BPGs).

CHNIG has supported nurses in their professional development through:

- Providing one $1000.00 award supporting a member to further their research at the academic and/or practice level.
- Providing one $1000.00 award supporting a member to further their education at the post-secondary level.
- Providing one $250.00 bursary to a RN member to attend the AGMs of the RNAO and the interest group in April 2019.
- Providing three $1,170.00 bursaries to support 3 RN members to attend and present their valuable work at a national nursing conference in Saint John, New Brunswick in May 2019.
- New for 2020, CHNIG will be offering a bursary to support nurses writing the national nursing specialty certification exam.
- Planning a one-day symposium on March 28, 2020 on influencing system change through the collective voices of community health nurses. Due to the COVID crisis, this symposium has been postponed.
- Collaborated with a national nursing association to host a webinar about the revised Professional Practice Model and Standards of Practice in November 2019 with over 100 participants.
- Submitted an abstract that was accepted to the national community health nursing conference for May 2021 on innovative strategies to mentor nursing students in advancing community health nursing.
- President, May Tao, has continuously provided mentorship and support for evidence-based nursing to four hospitals pre-designated as Best Practice Spotlight Organizations in China. As well, she actively participates as an expert panel member to develop a RNAO knowledge translation implementation science toolkit.

Goal Three: Speak out on emerging issues that impact on CHNs, community health nursing profession, and community health organizations.

[Aligns with RNAO END: RNAO speak out on emerging issues that impact on nurses and the nursing profession, health and health care.]

Recent advocacy and consultative initiatives in collaboration with RNAO and other health sector organizations included:

- The impact of the new envisioned public health system to the nursing profession and service delivery in community;
- Indigenous trauma-informed care;
- Landscape of electronic cigarettes and vaping, and emerging issues;
- System transformation and environmental health;
- Signed a pledge for the "Make it Better Campaign" on climate justice;
- Signed and supported several action alerts including the impact of public health funding cuts, expansion of the RN scope of practice and mandatory naloxone training for police;
- Submitted a policy brief on LGBTQ health at the federal level to the House of Commons Standing Committee on Health; and
- Enhancing Community Health Care Report (ECCO) 3.0.

This year, CHNIG has collaborated with several organizations to organize a variety of activities to speak out on emerging issues that impact CHNs and community health nursing.

We collaborated with:

- RNAO and several health care organizations to provide recommendations and inputs to the Ontario Ministry of Health on the provision of community health nursing roles in the new envisioned public health system.
- RNAO and four public health organizations to create three webinars on the impact and issues that surround the emergence of electronic cigarettes and vaping. A CHNIG member have contribute to an article on vaping to the RN Journal
- The Community Health Nurses of Canada to plan for a pre-conference titled: "System Transformation in Environmental Health" for RNs and students in Canada.
- RNAO's Peel chapter to co-ordinate a Nursing Week event in May 2020 to celebrate Florence Nightingale's 200th birthday.

Goal Four: Influence health, environmental and social policy.

[Align with RNAO END: Influences healthy public policy to positively impact the determinants of health, supporting Medicare and strengthening a publicly funded, not-for profit health system.]

CHNIG is committed to influence health, environmental and social policy.

- This fall, CHNIG organized an event to meet the RNAO's nursing leaders through a first-time partnership with Peel Chapter. The purpose of the event was to discuss priority nursing and health issues, and empower members to cast an informed vote for the federal election campaign. The RNAO President was our keynote, Dr. Angela Cooper Brathwaite, who delivered an inspirational message on nursing and policy. Over 50 RNs, NPs and nursing students attended the event to explore the role of nurses in political advocacy.
- CHNIG put forward a resolution for consideration at the 2020 RNAO AGM that was accepted with full support from the membership.
- As part of the RNAO Queen's Park on the Road and Queen's Park Day, President and Political Action BOD of this interest group met with a MPP to discuss two priority issues: long-term care funding and staffing mix, and consumption and treatment services. As a result, the MPP fully supported on these crucial issues and submitted a letter to both the provincial and federal Ministers of Health.
- Policy and Political Action BOD presented at the Social Justice Nursing Conference hosted by York University; advocated for hospice palliative care amongst vulnerable and disenfranchised populations.
- The CHNIG board has put together a policy manual with over 20 internal governing policies to operate the initiatives group.

2019-2020 was a successful year for CHNIG as we are actively involved in dialogue and consultation with the RNAO; participated in Assembly Meetings, Queens Park Day and Queens Park on the Road; and collaborated with several organizations to advance community health nursing. We continue to be committed to supporting our national organizations: The Canadian Nurses Association (CNA) and the Community Health Nurses of Canada (CHNC). Members are encouraged to maintain membership in both organizations to ensure a strong national voice for community health nurses.

The biggest achievement this year was that CHNIG was presented the Interest Group of the Year Award at the RNAO Annual General Meeting in June, 2020 to demonstrate commitment to the nursing profession and active participation in RNAO initiatives; effectively communicates through a variety of means, which influences decision-makers and mobilizes RNs, NPs and nursing students for action. CHNIG also exhibits exemplary teamwork and strong leadership within the nursing and health-care community. Overall, the CHNIG Board has diligently worked to meet all our goals and to maintain the VOICE of community health nurses in Ontario.

In closing, I am honored to have had the opportunity to serve as CHNIG President. I would like to sincerely thank each Director and all of the CHNIG volunteers whose determination, patience and persistence have influenced decisions affecting community health nursing.

I look forward, with excitement, to working with the new CHNIG Board as Past President in the coming year, and I am confident that our new President, Susan Tam and the new Directors will be up to the job of addressing the challenges and changes facing community health nurses.

I encourage all members to become involved by contacting our Board of Directors with comments, suggestions and/or ideas or through participating in a CHNIG committee/working group.

Respectfully submitted,

May Tao

| 17.0 Insurance | $594.00 |
| 18.0 Bank Fees | $257.50 |
| | $26,013.33 |

Here are some key points to better understand our financial position:

Few changes were made to the budget after assessment of trends in actual expenses:

| Code | Description | Amount Changed | Approved Budget 2018-2019 | Rationale: |
|-------|------------------------------------|----------------|---------------------------|---|
| 1.0 | President | ↓ $480.00 | $20.00 | Funds adjusted based on budgetary needs |
| 2.0 | Past President/ President-Elect | ↓ $100.00 | $400.00 | Funds adjusted based on budgetary needs |
| 11.0 | OPHA Liaison | ↓ $1,500.00 | $500.00 | Funds adjusted based on budgetary needs |
| 13.2 | BOD AGM Fund | ↓ $620.00 | $6,380.00 | Funds adjusted based on budgetary needs |
| 15.0 | Bookkeeping Fees | ↓ $200.00 | $1,500.00 | Funds adjusted based on budgetary needs |
| 6.2.2 | CHNIG Professional Development | ↓ $5,000.00 | $1000.00 | No plans for a professional development event for 2018-2019 year. |
| 10.4 | Marketing & Promotions | ↑ $1,000.00 | $1,500.00 | CHNIG priority: goal to focus on membership promotion and engagement |
| 12.0 | Student Representative | ↑ $ 200.00 | $500.00 | Increase in number of students involved in student affiliate group requiring additional funds |

Additional key points:

- CHNIG's bookkeeper continues to review our budget, complete and file our GST/HST remittance and the corporation's income tax returns. For 2018-2019, CHNIG was required to remit $2,702.84 in GST/HST which is comparable to previous recent years.
- It is important to note that CHNIG's membership funds have continued to drop over the past four (4) years: $54,683.88 in 2014-2015 to $45,950.13 in 2015-2016 to $41,948.25 in 2016-2017, $40,185.00 in 2017-2018, $ 32,625.00 in 2018-2019 and $33,419.00 in February 2020. The CHNIG Board continues to have discussions on methods to increase and maintain membership.
- CHNIG has continued to maintain our separate Tangerine Business Investment Savings Account as a reserve fund. It has been several years since the CHNIG Board has directed funds from our chequing account to our investment account. Seeing that our investment savings account earns fairly low interest ($10 to 17 per month).
- CHNIG has begun to explore other investment strategies in a fiscally responsible manner to strengthen the organization's sustainability. In July 2019, we consulted with Stephen Ford, Investment Advisor, who was introduced to us by Nancy Campbell, Director of Finance and Administration from the RNAO. Stephen gave suggestions for different possibilities to increase the funds in the Tangerine account. Investment strategies are still under discussion, as there are different options to choose from Tangerine and BMO.

- In January 2020, CHNIG BMO account was changed from business account to community account. The monthly bank fee of $22.50 was reduced to $0.00.

In summary, CHNIG has been fiscally responsible in managing funds effectively to ensure expenditures are well within budget and the allocation of bursaries to support members in research, education, and professional development. CHNIG has maintained a robust reserve fund to meet any future costs or financial obligations should any needs arise unexpectedly. The CHNIG Finance Committee will continue to oversee routine financial processes throughout the year, including the development and monitoring of the annual budget.

In closing, I would like to thank the CHNIG Board of Directors for their support and guidance throughout the year.

Respectfully submitted,

Suzana Tavares, CHNIG Treasurer

2.1 Members' Voices

- RNAO CEO Dr. Doris Grinspun joined us for member voices to address the highlights of the 2019 Ontario Budget as proposed by the conservative party.
- Katie Dilworth raised concerns about the proposed $200M reduction in public health budget, defunding of Supervised Consumption Sites, among other funding cuts, introduction of early access to alcoholic beverages without stakeholder consultation. Nurses need to be at the table to inform and assist the government in this transition (RNAO and OPNHL).
- Natalia Kusendova, RN and MPP of Mississauga Centre joined us to shed some light about the concerns in regards to the new budget. She was a part of the social committee that proposed Bill 74 (People's Health Care Act), which is about empowering local service providers to come together and develop Ontario Health Teams to focus the care around the patient. 35 PHUs will be amalgamated into 10, so money can go into the front lines. We have to address current priorities (32,000 patients on waitlist for LTC, hallway nursing). But we hope to see more health prevention reflected into the budget.
- Kay McGarvey shared the prototype of a care system currently in place at Sunnybrook Health Centre, which involves an interdisciplinary team, following and addressing the needs of individuals with complex comorbidities
- Burton Mohan shared his challenges with finding new job opportunities as a new grad RN with an interest in public health. He called on CHNIG to foster more opportunities for networking and dialogue to promote mentorship for new nurses interested in public health.
