

Alicia Moonesar BScN, MScN, NP-PHC DNP©

Bio: Alicia Moonesar is a Nurse Practitioner at the Centre for Complex Diabetes Care- North York General Hospital. She also works with the Ontario Emergency Medical Assistance Team (EMAT) as a Nurse Practitioner providing Primary Health Care to diverse communities. Alicia Moonesar graduated from Centennial College with a diploma in Nursing in 2004 and then completed her Bachelor of Science degree in Nursing from Ryerson University in 2007. She then went on to complete a Master's degree Nursing in 2009 from D'Youville College, Buffalo New York, and in 2014 completed her Nurse Practitioner - Primary Health Care Certificate Program from McMaster University. She is currently enrolled at Walden University in the Doctor of Nurse Practitioner Program. Her distinctive passion and interests are in the area of Nursing Leadership, expansion of safe practice settings and quality of work life environments, with a distinct focus on excellence and safety in patient care. Her 14 years of nursing experience includes progressive senior nursing management/leadership, nursing research and staff positions in the acute care, outpatient, primary care sectors and nursing education. Alicia also holds clinical appointments at the Lawrence S. Bloomberg Faculty of Nursing University of Toronto as an Adjunct Lecturer. She is a well-known and highly respected Nurse Leader who is passionate about the role of Nurse Practitioners in Ontario. Alicia has served on several committees for the College of Nurses of Ontario and currently sits as a Provincial Nomination Board Member for the Registered Nurses Association Ontario. She is aligned with the goals and mission of the Registered Nurses' Association of Ontario. Her aspiration is to advance the profession of Nurse Practitioners and to continue to promote and advocate for healthy public policy on issues related to Nursing and Health Care. Alicia is thrilled to serve as the Membership Executive Network Officer of the Nurse Practitioner Interest Group.

Photo:

