

Robyn Stevens, RN, BScN

Robyn is currently completing her Master of Nursing, Nurse Practitioner Primary Health-Global Health through the University of Toronto with an estimated completion of June 2019. Robyn completed her undergraduate Bachelor of Science in Nursing at the University of Ottawa in 2013 and has since worked at McMaster Children's Hospital Emergency Department in Hamilton, also working for several years at Grand River Hospital Emergency Department in Kitchener. Robyn has a keen interest in global health and has volunteered in an acute care hospital in Port-au-Prince, Haiti and a refugee camp in Northern Uganda. Most recently, Robyn completed a one-year contract at Sanctuary Refugee Health Centre in Kitchener, assisting in providing health care for over 2,700 newcomer refugees in the region. Outside of work, Robyn loves travel, getting outdoors and volunteering at summer camp. Upcoming adventures include a trip to Colombia and 10-day whitewater canoe trip with Camp Oochigeas.

